What number will in time be sold, no one can predict, the dramad is still so great.
The last number of "The New Englander" contains the following graphic notice:
"The story of Gerty and Uncle True, contained in the first fiften chapters, will always make the books a favorite. Many another will read to her little ones the story of the old-fashioned Lamplighter, whom they never see, but whose mysterious appearance shildren need to warch, as with torch and isdeer he appeared in the gathering darkness, and slowly climbed one post after another. Highting up the dim oil lamps through the street, until he desappeared at the furthest corner."

DR. TYNG'S NEW BOOK.

THE ROYAL KINSMAN; The HISTORY OF RUTHER ROYAL KINSMAN; The HISTORY OF RUTHER MOARITESS. By Stephen H. Tyng, D.D.
"The athor presents this work in the hope that it will be fund adapted to enlighten the minds of the young in some of the great subjects of Scriptural Instruction. It comprises a course of Lectures delivered to the yound of his congregation on the afternoons of the Lord's Day. It has been his great object to Interest the minds of the young in the study of the Holy Scriptura." The author has been long impressed with the leeling that neither commentaries nor sermous have yet truth for which it is designed. The young mind certainly can be interested in the word of God, as a book full of attraction as well as foll of truth. Whoever can be made, in any degree, the instrument of leading to this result by bringing out to view the real attractions of the Scripture. [Extract from the Freidec.]
